Farmingville, NY - Supervisor Ed Romaine (right) was joined by Fire Marshal Chris Mehrman (left) and Public Safety Commissioner Peter O'Leary (center) in the Town's Emergency Operations Center for a snow emergency briefing from New York State officials. Earlier today, the Supervisor issued a State of Emergency in the Town of Brookhaven effective at 2:00 pm. He also signed an Executive Order that calls for all vehicles, except for essential emergency vehicles, to be off the roads after 7:00 pm today. Vehicles that are parked in the street must be moved to driveways or be subject to towing at the owner's expense. Any abandoned vehicles obstructing access for snowplows and emergency vehicles may also be removed by the Town.

Residents should call 451-TOWN to report snow related issues. Call 911 for police, fire and ambulance emergencies only. To report a power outage or downed wires, call PSEG at 800-490-0075 or go to www.psegliny.com to file a report online. Please go to the Town's website at www.brookhaven.org for up-to-date snow storm related news, information, weather updates and emergency contact numbers.
